

INTRODUCTION TO GRANT WRITING

Laura Fuller, Noble County Community Development Educator

Does your organization have a project in mind, but aren't sure how to fund it? Have you ever wanted to write a grant, but weren't sure where to start? Then join us on October 20th for a Lunch and Learn.

Laura will be going through the basics of the grant writing process. We'll walk through how to go about finding a funding source that matches your need and what questions to ask your organization and possible funders. Last, we'll cover the common traps that people fall into in writing grants and ways to avoid them.

Preregistration is required by October 14th. Registration fee of $10 includes lunch. Training will take place at the OSU Southeast Regional Office at 16714 Wolf Run Road Caldwell, OH 43724.
